ORDER.

This is an application for stay of further proceedings before the newly constituted Tribunal which has been directed by the order of its appointment to hear and decide the disputes referred to the previous Tribunal. Section 8 clause 1 requires the reconstituted Tribunal to continue the proceedings and the management have only one or two witnesses to be examined on their side. The workers have led their evidence and closed their case. In the circumstances we do not consider this a fit case in which further proceedings should be stayed. The application is dismissed.
